Still believe quality costs? Inami Basic & Reasonable Instruments

IBRI is our selection of world's standard ophthalmic surgical instruments series for international market. Our intention to launch this brand is to wipe off preconceived idea "quality costs."
We have specially developed a new product line only for this series with our strict guide line of quality control for MDs' total satisfaction.

Perfectly arrayed serration as a result of mastership

So precisely meshed that it makes no gap in between and holds a thread
